Message from Mrs Sadler

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been brilliant to see the children settling into their new learning during this week. They have quickly settled into new phonics groups, a new approach to teaching writing, and their topics across the curriculum. As leaders, we have enjoyed visiting classrooms to see the positive routines which are already in place, even for our youngest children. We now have dates set, throughout the Autumn Term, for parents to come into school for workshops, to find out more about different aspects of the curriculum and how they are taught in different year groups. Do look out for those dates and sign up on Class Dojo. You will notice that there is also an attendance workshop which is open to all parents, as we are starting to track attendance in a very different way this year, monitoring the number of days which a child is absent for, rather than only focusing on their percentage attendance. This is a very new but exciting approach, and we hope that many of you will come along to find out more!

In the meantime, keep up with what children are doing across the school by liking and following our school Facebook page. You can access it at:

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Sadler

Worship this half term:

This half term we are exploring the school value of responsibility. We would love to share prayers written by the children linked to this value!

Teaching & Learning Focus This Week:

This week leaders have monitored the effectiveness of the classroom environments across the school, and phonics teaching across Key Stage 1. Inclusion meetings have taken place to ensure that learning is adapted to meet the needs of all children in each class.

Attendance

We are now tracking attendance based on the number of days a child has been absent.

More information about this will be shared on Class Dojo.

Class rewards for attendance will now be based on improvements in attendance, not achieving 100%.
